In 1974, the United States Congress enacted the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act (the Act)<sup>1</sup>. The purpose of the Act is to provide a coordinated and comprehensive approach to the problems of juvenile delinquency. Section 223 of the Act addresses the requirements which states must meet in order to receive formula grants from the federal government. Pursuant to Rhode Island General Laws §42-26-4 the specifics of the Act and the administration of juvenile justice funding is carried out by the Rhode Island Justice Commission (RIJC) and specifically by the Juvenile Justice Specialist.

The Act requires that states adhere to certain "core requirements" when apprehending and detaining juveniles and that a record is maintained of the nature detentions and characteristics of juveniles detained. All law enforcement agencies in Rhode Island are required to maintain this information through a self-reporting system on a Juvenile Detention Data Summary Form<sup>2</sup>. These reports are forwarded to the RIJC on a monthly basis, and the Juvenile Justice Specialist uses the information to submit a yearly summary report to the federal Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention<sup>3</sup>.

In order to further utilize the data submitted to the RIJC a relational database was created. With this analysis tool, it is possible to examine the dynamics of juvenile offenses in much greater detail. We can examine offenses statewide, within cities and towns or among cities and towns by age, gender, racial/ethnic background, time of day, day of week or month. Our aim in this project is to provide practitioners and policy makers with statistical information that will allow their decision-making processes to be more informed.

Data can also be accessed at <http://www.rijjustice.state.ri.us/sac/statistics.htm>.

FINAL DISPOSITION

Final Disposition is the designation an agency gives to the incident to describe how the detention was resolved. A youth could be released to the custody of a parent, custody of another person, brought to the RI Training School for Youth (RITSY), turned over to the Department of Children, Youth and Families (DCYF), have their case referred to a Juvenile Hearing Board (JHB) or some other resolution.

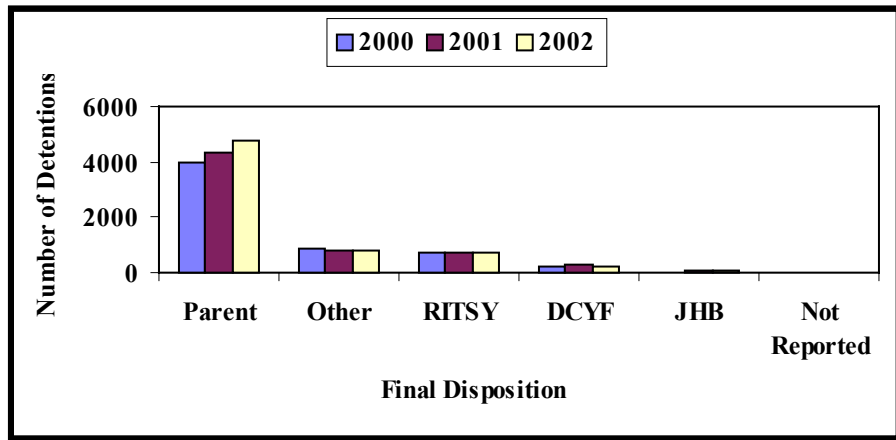

It is important to note that these are only immediate resolutions and not final legal adjudications.

The overwhelming majority of youth detained in 2002, 83%, were ultimately released to a parent or some other caretaker. 11% were brought directly to the RI Training School for Youth. 4% of those detained were turned over to the custody of the Department of Children, Youth and Families.

17% more detainees were released to a parent or other caretaker in 2002 than in 2001. 2% more detainees were taken directly to the RITSY. 16% less detainees were turned over to the custody of DCYF.

Although it was reported that 1% of detainees had their incidents referred to Juvenile Hearing Boards, it can be inferred that these were less serious offenses and these youth too, were released to the custody of a parent or other adult. In actuality, the Juvenile Hearing Board case number for 2002 is larger than 66. However, the determination to refer a case to a JHB often occurs at a later date.
